

Kenneth N. Nigon

Ken Nigon is a shareholder at Ratner Prestia in Valley Forge, Pennsylvania. Ken has 28 years of experience in Intellectual Property Law, including five years as Patent Counsel for a major consumer electronics corporation and 23 years with RatnerPrestia. In his work at RatnerPrestia, Mr. Nigon has acted as Patent Counsel for three U.S. laboratories of a major Japanese consumer electronics company, advised in-house patent counsel of a major U.S. research laboratory and managed the procurement and licensing of Intellectual Property for numerous other companies. Mr. Nigon has counseled clients in the full range of Intellectual Property matters. He has also served as an expert witness in litigation in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

Before he became an attorney, Mr. Nigon worked for nine years as an Engineering Programmer and Systems Programmer for a major U.S. computer manufacturer.

Mr. Nigon has served in all offices of the Philadelphia Intellectual Property Law Association except Treasurer and is also an active member of the American Intellectual Property Law Association where he is currently serving as Chair of the Patent Law Committee.

Mr. Nigon been recognized in the Philadelphia Magazine "Pennsylvania Super Lawyers" publication in the area of Intellectual Property Law every year since 2005 and in Chambers & Partners' publication, America's Leading Lawyers for Business: The Client's Guide, as a leading intellectual property attorney in Pennsylvania every year since 2005. Mr. Nigon has also been recognized as one of America's Best Lawyers.

Mr. Nigon has a Juris Doctor degree from Temple University, a Masters of Science in Electrical Engineering/Computer Engineering from Stanford University and a Bachelor of Science in Electrical Engineering from the University of Notre Dame.