Bruce Wexler is a partner in the Litigation practice of Paul Hastings and a co-founder of the life sciences patent litigation practice. Mr. Wexler is a trial lawyer with extensive experience litigating high-stakes patent cases in a range of technologies, including representing clients as lead counsel defending their patents covering multi-million and multi-billion dollar drug products. His branded pharmaceutical clients include Eisai, Boehringer Ingelheim, Takeda, Merck, and Mediscis.

Chambers USA calls Mr. Wexler a “litigation and trial expert at the firm,” also noting his ability to “explain complex situations clearly to enable informed decision-making,” and his “exceptional writing skills and strong technical ability.” Mr. Wexler is ranked in Life Sciences Magazine 2012 as a Life Sciences Star. The IAM Patent 1000 report refers to him as an “awesomely effective trial lawyer.” The Financial Times awarded his successful defense of the Aricept® drug franchise “standout” notice for innovative lawyering. He is recognized in the IAM250 leading New York IP litigators report as a “really strong substantive lawyer.” He is ranked in The Legal 500 US and featured as a NY “Super Lawyer.” Mr. Wexler is a recipient of the Burton Award for Legal Achievement in legal writing.

Mr. Wexler’s writing has been published in numerous journals, including Forbes, Law360, IP Magazine, Managing IP, and NYU’s Journal of Intellectual Property and Entertainment Law. He is a regular speaker at legal seminars, including ACI’s Paragraph IV Disputes conference. Mr. Wexler has been frequently quoted with regard to litigation and practice developments, including in the Wall Street Journal, Bloomberg News, Reuters, The Deal, and The New York Times. Mr. Wexler regularly provides his clients with in-house CLE presentations on a variety of topics of interest, and authors client alerts concerning important developments in the law.

Mr. Wexler advised Congress and key stakeholders during the consideration and enactment of the America Invents Act. He is also a former judicial law clerk of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, where he served under Chief Judge Glenn L. Archer, Jr. He clerked for Chief Judge Archer during his preparation of influential Federal Circuit decisions, including Markman v. Westview.

Mr. Wexler received his J.D. magna cum laude from New York University (Order of the Coif) and his B.S., summa cum laude, in physics from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, where he was a member of Sigma Pi Sigma honor society.
